

Artists Collective 2018 – 2019 Workshop Schedule

Music Department

The Artists Collective's Music Department offers group and private workshops in saxophone, flute, clarinet, trumpet, trombone, acoustic and electronic guitar and bass, piano, violin, drums and voice. Many instructors are selected students trained by Jackie McLean and faculty from the Jackie McLean Institute of Jazz, Hartt School of Music, University of Hartford, using his teaching methods, which include and emphasize improvisation. Sight-reading, theory and western classical techniques are also taught. René McLean, acclaimed multi-instrumental composer, educator, serves as artist-in-residence.

Music Workshops

Music students receive a half-hour private lesson once a week. Group music workshops are also available for many course offerings and consist of one to two hours of instruction, one day per week. Each student will receive quality instruction, plus the experience of a challenging music environment. Upon instructor recommendation, students may be reassigned for private lessons. Selected students are invited to audition for our various music ensembles.

Rites of Passage Cultural Arts and Education/Children's Voices – Choral and ensemble training, breathing, intonation, projection, pronunciation, as well as other singing techniques for selected 4th – 12th grade students. Younger students accepted through special audition.

Rites of Passage Cultural Arts and Education Program Music – This program is for selected 4th – 12th grade students of Annie Fisher, M. L. King, Milner, Rawson, Simpson-Waverly, Wish, Mark Twain, Jumokey Academy, Hartford and CREC Choice Public Schools, who receive instruction in music appreciation and choral music.
